Examiner
Art Unit 3711

Dear Sir/Madam:

In response to the office action dated August 9, 2005, applicant respectfully asks the examiner to amend the above identified application as follows:

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Page 1, under the Background of the Invention, in the 4th paragraph, following "Insofar as the prior art is concerned," Please add the following description:

Insofar as the prior art is concerned, the art is void of any disclosures or showings of a two card poker game that appreciates a 2 card straight or a 2 card flush by dealing only two cards. Additionally, the art is particularly void of any disclosures or showings of any poker game, which deals more than one round of poker from at least a single deck(s) and before a shuffle. The game features multiple rounds of poker being dealt from the same deck(s) and before a shuffle. This feature, which is non-obvious and novel, shall be incorporated into poker hands that can be featured in either two card poker games, three card poker games, four card poker games, five card poker games, six card poker games and or any other predetermined amount of cards for a poker game(s).
